CAMAS ATHLETES OF PAST—Taken in 1908, this picture shows a group of Camas baseball stars of days gone by. The sporting young gentleman in the straw hat fourth from the left in the back row is Vern Anderson, later to become mayor of Vancouver. Others in the picture include, back row, left to right, Chubby Laws, next player unknown, H. Ostenson, Anderson, Manager Warren, Gradie Pickett, Frank Cox and John Pickett. The other players in front are reported to have been "imports," according to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace of Camas who loaned the picture. The team was one of the best of its day.
